

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

GARY DION GORDON,

Plaintiff,

v.

NAVIENT SOLUTIONS, INC.,

Defendant.

CIVIL COMPLAINT

CASE NO. 1:17-cv-03196

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMPLAINT

NOW comes GARY DION GORDON (“Plaintiff”), by and through his attorneys, Sulaiman Law Group, Ltd. (“Sulaiman”), complaining as to the conduct of NAVIENT SOLUTIONS, INC. (“Defendant”), as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action for damages pursuant to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) under 47 U.S.C. §227 and the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act (“ICFA”) under 815 ILCS 505/1 for Defendant's unlawful practices.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This action arises under and is brought pursuant to the TCPA. Subject matter jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 47 U.S.C §227, 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1337, as the action arises under the laws of the United States and supplemental jurisdiction exists for the state law claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 as Defendant conducts business in the Northern District of Illinois and maintains significant contacts in the Northern District of Illinois.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff is a 43 year-old natural “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39).

5. Defendant is the largest servicer of student loans in the United States with its principal place of business located at 123 Justison Street, Wilmington, Delaware. Defendant is engaged in the business of collecting or attempting to collect, directly or indirectly, student loans owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to others using the mail and telephone across the country, including in Illinois.

6. Defendant is a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39).

7. Defendant acted through its agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives and insurers at all time relevant to the instant action.

FACTS SUPPORTING CAUSES OF ACTION

8. In approximately August 2016, Plaintiff began receiving calls to his cellular phone, (313) XXX-5061 from Defendant.

9. At all times relevant, Plaintiff was the sole subscriber, owner, and operator of the cellular phone ending in 5061. Plaintiff is and has always been financially responsible for the cellular phone and its services.

10. Defendant has used a variety of phone numbers when contacting Plaintiff, including but not limited to: (585) 445-6792, (317) 550-5613, (765) 637-0801, and (513) 972-4972.

11. Upon information and belief, the aforementioned phone numbers are all regularly utilized by Defendant to make outgoing calls to consumers it is collecting upon.

12. When Plaintiff answers calls from Defendant, he experiences a pre-recorded message, asking to speak with an individual named “Ashley Neely” regarding her student loans.

13. Plaintiff is unfamiliar with any individual by that name.

14. Plaintiff is unaware as to how Defendant obtained his information and why it was calling him, since he has never incurred any student loans.

15. Defendant continued to regularly call Plaintiff’s cellular phone up until early 2017.

16. Defendant has also called Plaintiff’s cellular phone multiple times during the same day.

17. Plaintiff has received not less than 31 phone calls from Defendant, seeking to collect upon this unknown individual.

18. Frustrated over the persistent calls, Plaintiff spoke with Sulaiman regarding his rights resulting in costs and expenses.

19. With the goal of specifically addressing Defendant’s conduct, Plaintiff has expended approximately $74.00 to purchase and maintain an application subscription on his cellular phone to block the calls, resulting in pecuniary loss.

20. Plaintiff has been unfairly harassed by Defendant's actions.

21. Plaintiff has suffered concrete harm as a result of Defendant’s actions, including but not limited to, invasion of privacy, aggravation that accompanies collection telephone calls intended for an unknown individual, emotional distress, increased risk of personal injury resulting from the distraction caused by the never-ending calls, increased usage of his telephone services, loss of cellular phone capacity, diminished cellular phone functionality, decreased battery life on his cellular phone, and diminished space for data storage on his cellular phone.

COUNT I – VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

22. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 21 as though fully set forth herein.

23. The TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(iii), prohibits calling persons on their cellular phone using an automatic telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) without their consent. The TCPA, under 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1), defines an ATDS as “equipment which has the capacity...to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and to dial such numbers.”

24. Defendant used an ATDS in connection with its communications directed towards Plaintiff. The automated message that Plaintiff experienced upon answering Defendant’s calls is instructive that an ATDS was being used. Similarly, the frequency and nature of Defendant’s calls are indicative of an ATDS.

25. Plaintiff does not have any business relationship with Defendant nor has he ever given it permission to call his cellular phone. Plaintiff has never owed on a debt for student loans, and Defendant was calling his cellular phone looking for a different party whom Plaintiff had no familiarity with. As such, he could not have given Defendant consent to contact him.

26. The calls placed by Defendant to Plaintiff were regarding business activities and not for emergency purposes as defined by the TCPA under 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(A)(i).

27. Under the TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B), Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for at least $500.00 per call. Moreover, Defendant’s willful and knowing violations of the TCPA should trigger this Honorable Court’s ability to triple the damages to which Plaintiff is otherwise entitled to under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(C).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, GARY DION GORDON, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff damages of at least $500.00 per phone call and treble damages pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b)(3)(B)&(C);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees;
- d. Enjoining Defendant from further contacting Plaintiff; and
- e. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT II – VIOLATIONS OF THE ILLINOIS
CONSUMER FRAUD AND DECEPTIVE BUSINESS PRACTICES ACT

28. Plaintiff restates and realleges paragraphs 1 through 27 as though fully set forth herein.

29. Plaintiff is a “person” and “consumer” as defined by 815 ILCS 505/1(c) and (e) of the ICFA.

30. Defendant’s collection calls to Plaintiff are “trade” and “commerce” as defined by 815 ILCS 505/1(f) of the ICFA.

31. The ICFA states:

“Unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices, including but not limited to the use or employment of any deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, misrepresentation or the concealment, suppression or omission of any material fact, with intent that others rely upon the concealment, suppression or omission of such material fact . . . in the conduct of any trade or commerce are hereby declared unlawful whether any person has in fact been misled, deceived or damaged thereby.” 815 ILCS 505/2.

32. Defendant violated 815 ILCS 505/2 by engaging in an unfair and deceptive act or practice in contacting Plaintiff. It was unfair for Defendant to relentlessly contact Plaintiff through means of an ATDS when it had no reason or permission to do so. Defendant was attempting to contact an entirely different person that Plaintiff had no relationship with. The fact that it was looking to speak with a female named Ashley Neely, but continuously called Plaintiff, whose name is Gary Gordon, is illustrative of Defendant's unfair practice.

33. Defendant has also placed multiple calls to Plaintiff's cellular phone in the same day. Placing several calls in a short amount of time is extremely harassing behavior that amounts to unfair practice, especially when Defendant is relentlessly calling for the wrong individual.

34. The ICFA was designed to protect consumers, such as Plaintiff, from the exact behavior committed by Defendant.

35. The ICFA further states:

“Any person who suffers actual damage as a result of a violation of this Act committed by any other person may bring an action against such person. The court, in its discretion may award actual economic damages or any other relief which the court deems proper.” 815 ILCS 505/10a.

36. As pled in paragraphs 17 through 21, Plaintiff has suffered actual damages as a result of Defendant's unlawful collection practices, including expending money on a monthly application subscription on his cellular phone to block the calls. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to relief pursuant to 815 ILCS 505/10a. An award of punitive damages is appropriate because Defendant's conduct was outrageous, willful and wanton, and showed a reckless disregard for the rights of Plaintiff. Defendant was calling Plaintiff to speak with an unknown individual, as Plaintiff had no business relationship with Defendant. Defendant had ample reasons to be aware of the fact that it was calling the wrong person, but it still continued its onslaught of phone calls with the intent to secure payment, no matter if it was from the customer actually owing the debt, or an unrelated consumer like Plaintiff. This is deceptive behavior and upon information and belief, Defendant regularly engages in the above described behavior against consumers in Illinois and for public policy reasons should be penalized.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, GARY DION GORDON, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff actual and punitive damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, for the underlying violations;
- c. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees;
- d. Enjoining Defendant from further contacting Plaintiff; and
- e. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.
